WANT TO KNOW HIS POSITION

Urgents Anxious to Find Out Where Taft Stands.

TAFT HAVE TO SHOW HIS HAND

Observers in Washington Believe that the President Ultimately Will be Compelled to State Whether He Favors the Insurgents or the Regulars—Fight on Cannon and Aldrich Will Be Continued.

Washington, Nov. 26.—Republican urgents who are arriving in Washington want to know just as soon as possible what position President Taft stands to assume toward the contest to be waged this winter on the leadership of Senator Aldrich and Speaker Cannon. The house insurgents are determined apparently to renew the fight on Mr. Cannon, and the Senators Cummins of Iowa, La Follette of Wisconsin and Bristow of Kansas declare that in the senate the leadership will be kept on the President Taft's attitude towards the house and senate insurgents is reported to be substantially as follows:

The president will not interfere unduly with the tactics of the insurgents in the legislative programme which he will submit to congress next month. In his message he will recommend changes in the interstate commerce law, the Sherman anti-trust act, as well as the passage of a bill making appropriations to encourage the upbuilding of the American merchant marine. He will suggest legislation, but as things stand the three measures indicated will have given prominence in his message. Mr. Taft is hopeful of getting on with them before adjournment.

Would Keep Out of Party Rows.

The president will take no hand in the factional rows within the party in the house and senate unless he is asked to do so. He will not countenance any controversy that threatens to defer the enactment of legislation that he regards as desirable in the interests of the general welfare of the country.

President Taft is noted as a harmonizer, but he found it impossible to harmonize the warring forces in his party when the tariff bill was up for consideration last summer. Seven republican senators and eighteen republican representatives voted against the Aldrich-Payne act and the measure was forced through the house by the assistance of certain insurgents that the president was able to hold in line.

In speeches recently delivered Mr. Cannon has defied the insurgents to their worst, while Senator Cummins has added fuel to the flame of controversy by enjoining the insurgents to go after the Cannon organization this winter with renewed vigor. There will be a hot time in the house at this session and more or less excitement in the senate. Observers here believe that ultimately President Taft may be forced to show his hand as between the insurgents and the regulars.

Sixteen Persons Injured.

Denver, Nov. 26.—Sixteen persons were injured when a Fairmont Park street car left the rails at Colfax and Madison streets, crashed over the curb and overturned on the sidewalk. Mrs. S. S. Savor, internally injured, probably will die.

BOY KILLS HIS COMPANION

Minnesota Youth Accidentally Shoots Comrade.

Winona, Minn., Nov. 26.—Albert Daum, seventeen years old, was shot and killed by Alvin Knapp, eighteen years old, while the boys were hunting in the woods just outside the city limits.

Young Knapp had gone into the ravine while his companion remained near the hill crest, when the former sighted a partridge just above him.

The boy fired his shotgun and Daum, who was in plain sight, sank to the ground. One of the shot had penetrated the chest just above the heart and the wounded lad died in a few moments.

The two were companions and were students of the Winona high school. The dead boy is the son of Julius Daum, a truck gardener.

Knapp is prostrated.

BABY KILLED BY ARSENIC

Mother May Die as Result of the Shock.

Aurora, Ill., Nov. 26.—A kindly meaning neighbor woman of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis of Salisbury, Ill., came into their home to take care of their girl babe, twelve days old, while Mrs. Davis was ill.

Under the impression that she was using talcum powder the babe's nurse twice sprinkled her charge with powdered arsenic and the infant died. The coroner's jury brought in a verdict of accidental poisoning.

The arsenic and talcum powder, although plainly labeled, were in similar packages.

The mistake may cost two lives. Mrs. Davis, the child's mother, seriously ill before she lost her babe, is now prostrated and seems unable to rally.

DO NOT WANT A MONOPOLY

Wrights Say Suits Are to Protect Their Own Invention.

New York, Nov. 26.—Wilbur and Orville Wright, who are in this city in conference with their attorneys regarding the patent infringement suits against the Herring-Curtiss company for alleged violation of the Wright aeroplane patents, deny emphatically they are trying to create a monopoly of the aerial rapid transit business.

"It has been stated here and in Europe," said Orville Wright, "that we are endeavoring to clog the wheels of progress and to prevent all others from using the air in this way. This is illogical and untrue. We are simply protecting ourselves. We are entitled to the fruits of our labors."

The suits will be heard early next month. No confirmation can be had of recent rumors in aeronautical circles that a combination is being formed of all other machine builders to combat the Wright machines.

MASKED MEN LYNCH NEGRO

Victim Had Beaten and Robbed an Aged Man.

Meridan, Miss., Nov. 26.—Morgan Chambers, a negro, was taken from Town Marshal Broadway and Deputy Joe Camp at Meehan, twelve miles west of Meridan, by a mob of 200 masked men and his body riddled with bullets.

The negro had beaten and robbed Martin Dressler, an aged citizen of Point, a small station two miles west of Meehan.

Missing Man a Suicide.

Independence, Ia., Nov. 26.—Thomas Clark, forty-nine years old, committed suicide while despondent by hanging himself in a grove near Rowley, ten miles south. Clark disappeared from his home in Waterloo last week. Despondency is given as the reason for the act.

TO MARK CANAL COMPLETION

San Francisco Would Hold Exposition in 1915.

Washington, Nov. 26.—San Francisco wants to hold an exposition in 1915 in celebration of the completion of the Panama canal, and Representative Julius Kahn of that city asked President Taft if he thought it would be safe for the city to go ahead on the theory that the great work would be finished by that date.

"Go ahead with your exposition," replied the president. "The canal will be completed by 1915."

Further than this, however, Mr. Taft did not indorse the exposition plan. He especially failed to say he would join San Francisco in asking congress for the $5,000,000 it wants to help make the fair a success.

Representative Kahn said that the city would raise a like amount and so would the state of California, and he thought the federal government ought to be generous, especially when the exposition managers proposed to pay it all back again.

WORK ON THE PANAMA CANAL

Congressional Committee Is Pleased With Progress Made.

Havana, Nov. 26.—The American congressional appropriations committee, which has been inspecting the Panama canal, arrived here from Colon by the steamer Cristobal. They were received by President Gomez.

Members of the committee said they all were greatly pleased with the progress of work on the canal and believed it probable that the canal would be completed and open for traffic in advance of the estimated date. Senator Coe I. Crawford of South Dakota said all the members of the committee were highly impressed by the splendid work of Colonel Goethals, chairman of the canal commission and chief engineer of the work. They were convinced, he said, of the desirability of the passage of the bill of Mr. Mann of Illinois, which passed the house during the last session of congress. This bill is designed to reduce the number of canal commissioners and simplify the administration, which would give Colonel Goethals a freer hand. It is also probable that the committee will recommend a reduction of from $8,000,000 to $10,000,000 in the estimates of the canal commission.

PANIC OCCURS ON A SMALL LAUNCH

Cratt Capsizes and Five Persons Perish.

Muskegon, Mich., Nov. 26.—Five persons drowned in Muskegon lake when the pleasure launch Olga, carrying a party of nine young people, capsized as the result of a panic following a gasoline explosion. Four of those who lost their lives were members of one family. The dead are: Oscar Carlson, aged twenty-eight; Hulda Carlson, twenty-four; Anna Carlson, twenty; Jennie Carlson, eighteen; Ann Saunders.

The rescued are: Ernest Carlson, Anna Carstar, Arthur Pierson and Nels Nelson, owner of the boat. The party started out to attend a wedding on the north side of the lake and decided to take a short cruise before going to the festivities. They encircled the lake and were within 150 feet of the north landing when some gasoline exploded. The girls became panic stricken, thinking that the boat would catch fire.

Nelson says that there was no danger, as the fire was nowhere near the tank. Nevertheless they all rushed to the stern of the boat, which was only about eighteen feet long, causing it to capsize. Four of the young people succeeded in climbing on the upturned boat and hung until rescued. The others sank at once. The bodies were all recovered within an hour of the accident.

WILL RUN A LOAN BUSINESS

Church Will Lend Money to Needy Members.

New York, Nov. 26.—What will be, when fully developed, an absolutely new thing in the detail of the administration of a great church is being planned now by the officers of the Central Presbyterian church, of which the Rev. Dr. John F. Carson is pastor. This proposition, now only a tentative one, but which will no doubt be fully developed into a working plan, is to create a fund which can be drawn upon in case any one of the members is in financial embarrassment and needs a loan. It is also intended to take members out of the hands of the money sharks.

The fund, which, it is understood, is not to be a large one, is to be maintained on a purely business basis, and is to be directed by men of business. The borrower will be obliged to pay back what he gets from the fund, and in fact it is to be understood, cannot get a loan except on this purely business basis.

It is in no sense a charitable fund, but is in the minds of the promoters. There is in every church what is known as the "Deacons Fund," and this is used in the way of charity to those in need. The new fund is an entirely distinctive one, to be used for a distinctive purpose.

It is understood that one who desires to borrow money must do so with the proviso that it is to be paid back at a specified time, and it will only be loaned after an investigation of the business and private character of the borrower.

REVOLUTION IS SPREADING

Rebels Also Maintaining an Effective Blockade.

PROTECT FOREIGN INTERESTS

Insurgent Gunboats Fired on Greytown, but Without Effect—Rebel Forces Now Have Possession of the Back Country of Nicaragua, Including Rama, Where Fighting Is Likely to Occur.

Washington, Nov. 26.—The revolution in Nicaragua is spreading, in the opinion of Captain Shipley, commander of the United States cruiser Des Moines, which is off the east coast of Nicaragua. The revolutionary forces are reported to be maintaining an effective blockade and are patrolling off Greytown with two gunboats. Assurance was given that American and foreign interests are being protected.

These are the important facts contained in a cablegram received at the navy department from the commander of the Des Moines at Port Limon. On Nov. 23 the revolutionary gunboats fired on Greytown, but without effect. The revolutionary forces now have possession of the back country of Nicaragua, including Rama, where fighting is likely to occur. An officer from the Des Moines landed at Greytown, but found only one American citizen.

The state department was advised by the Western Union Telegraph company that during the present interruption to the telegraph lines in Nicaragua and Costa Rica, it is possible to handle some of the traffic by wireless, via Colon, but that the service is not continuous, and there was no communication between Tuesday and Thursday. This accounts for the difficulty the department is experiencing in its efforts to reach its diplomatic and consular officers at Central American ports. Renewed efforts are being made to reach these officers.

Wireless Message Received.

The department of state received by wireless, by way of Colon, a message, of which the following is a translation:

"According to article 742 of military ordinance Zelaya had no right to shoot the outposts."

The message was signed "Sub Secretary of State Moreira." It is assumed that he is an insurrectionist. It was stated that the department would not reply to Moreira.

That the explanation to be made by the Nicaraguan government regarding the conditions under which the two Americans, Groce and Cannon, were executed will be unsatisfactory to the state department can safely be predicted. From any point the official view is that the men were free from the charge of being spies, and were entitled to be regarded as prisoners of war, and therefore not subject to that penalty. Moreover, if they were captured in Costa Rica, as reported, the act was in clear violation of Costa Rican sovereignty, and may easily involve Costa Rica in war with the Zelayan government if the American government turns to Costa Rica for redress.

FOUR PERSONS ARE INJURED

Street Cars Collide on Account of Slippery Track.

St. Paul, Nov. 26.—Four persons were injured, two severely, when a Minnehaha Falls car and a Fort Snelling car crashed into each other on account of the slippery condition of the track and defective air brakes.

P. A. Callahan, conductor of the Fort Snelling car, was thrown against the side of the vestibule by the force of the shock, sustaining several deep cuts from broken glass. P. C. Grillet and Otto Niedhofer were also cut by flying glass and were taken home in the police ambulance. A baby which was held in the arms of its mother, who was standing in the doorway ready to alight, was also hurt, while the mother was thrown against the gates. Neither of their names could be learned.

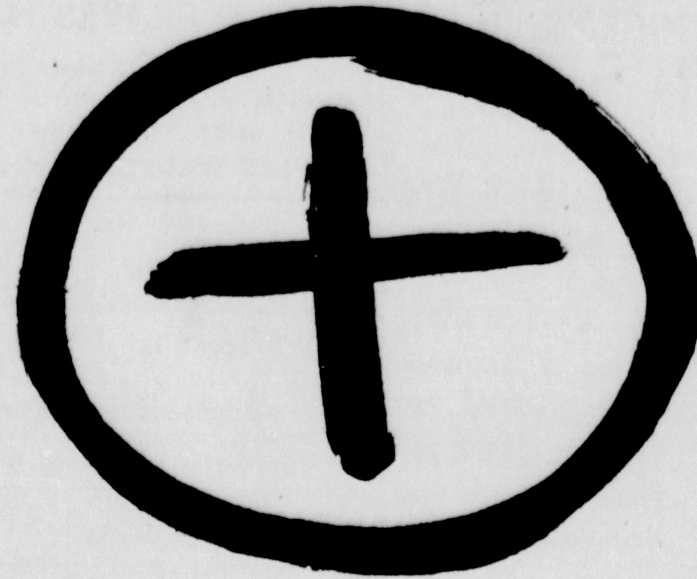

BYRCE MAY BE RECALLED

British Ambassador to Madrid May Succeed Him.

London Nov. 26.—A Madrid special to the Morning Telegraph says it is reported there that Sir Maurice De Bunsen, British ambassador to Madrid, will soon replace Ambassador Bryce at Washington.

JAMES GALLAGHER WAS MURDERED

Watchman at Dale & Bumgarten's Railroad Camp Was Beaten to Death in a Fight

WAS KILLED WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Remains of Dead Man Found Lying in the Streets of Cuyuna Thanksgiving Morning

James Gallagher, a watchman in the employ of Dale & Bumgarten, at their camp about half a mile from Cuyuna, was found dead in the streets of Cuyuna in the early hours of Thanksgiving morning. According to reports received here he was beaten upon by a crowd of men and beaten to death.

Ralph Mooney, deputy coroner, went to Deerwood Thanksgiving morning on the early train and drove to Cuyuna and viewed the remains and began an investigation of the fact. He returned home on the evening train and the inquest will be held either in Cuyuna or Deerwood Saturday forenoon. Mr. Mooney states that he was able to get a few particulars of the killing yesterday and that there were said to have been several witnesses to the affair and he expects the facts to be brought out at the inquest.

Gallagher, so far as can be learned was somewhat of a wanderer, and had been sent to Dale & Bumgarten as contractors, by Peter Meagher, a health employment agent on September 18th. The name and address of James Cassidy, Fourteenth and Kennepin streets, Minneapolis, was found on his person and fellow workmen had heard Gallagher speak of Cassidy frequently. Cassidy was notified Thanksgiving of the crime, but had not been heard from up to today.

There are many rumors afloat, one being that there was a fight between the miners at the Kennedy mine and the men from the railroad camps, but this cannot be verified.

SHOPS WORKING IN RELAYS

Machine Shops to Work Days and Blacksmith Shop Nights Rest of the Week

POWER PLANT OVERHAULED

Rush of Business Will Not Permit Shutting Down Shops For that Purpose at Present

For a number of years it has been the custom for the Northern Pacific shops in this city to shut down the Friday after and Saturday following Thanksgiving in order that the power plant might be overhauled. This year there has been such a rush of business at the shops that this has proved impossible. In order to overhaul the power plant it has been found necessary to change the working hours of the blacksmith shop.
The machine and car shops run Friday and Saturday as usual but the blacksmith shop is laying off those two days and will work Friday and Saturday nights. In this way some of the units of the power plant can be shut down and repaired while the rest furnish motive power for the entire shops by running them in relays.
Both the business men and shop men are pleased with this indication that the winter will be a busy one.

DEER RUNS THROUGH STREETS

Fine Doe Was Chased Through East Brainerd on the Afternoon of Thanksgiving Day

Residents of East Brainerd were treated to the sight of a large doe running at large through the streets of the city. Wm. Schwindmann and his brother, while hunting near Rice lake Thursday afternoon, discovered fresh deer tracks and following them they found a doe standing in the yard of C. J. Nash, at 1504 Northeast 13th street. They gave chase and the animal ran down to the yard of Charles Mudge, where it stood in plain sight under the electric lights. After circling the swamps near the fair grounds the animal swam Rice Lake to Pillsbury island and escaped, apparently unhurt, although it was fired upon several times.

AN IMPRESSIVE SCENE

A Large Audience Witnessed the Burning of the Mortgages at St. Paul's Church

It was an impressive and rather dramatic scene at St. Paul's Episcopal church Thanksgiving morning when the mortgage on the church property was burned while the choir sang the Te Deum. The mortgage destroyed was for $525, although the debt had originally been over $1000.
This indebtedness was contracted nearly 14 years ago when the present brick rectory was built. The church is now in excellent financial condition, having the half block on which the church and rectory stand, as well lots in the same block facing Broadway. There was a large audience present to witness the destruction of the instruments of the indebtedness and to celebrate the freedom of the church from debt.

We were quite sure that there would be no lack of buyers at the first SAT-URDAY NIGHT SALE—the crowd came—it saw and was conquered—it needed no microscope to discover the remarkable values. The merchandise was here, exactly as we advertised it—the prices, well we only know that action began at the stroke of 7 o'clock bell and continue unabated until closing time.

One can bring a crowd with an offering of big values, but one won't do business unless the prices match the advertisement. We did business.

We have prepared for the 2nd AFTER SUPPER SALE with another great budget of bargains. We will see a large percentage of the people who came to the first—and a host of friends—because there has been much talk of the plums that were picked at the first sale. So you had better come too—another crop is ready for those who like to buy goods at retail, at less than most stores pay wholesale.

We will have other bargains.

LORD BALFOUR GIVES WARNING

Tells Peers of Danger of Rejecting Budget.

WOULD BE ONLY TEMPORARY

Says Victory Would Not Be Permanent and Defeat Would Impair the Usefulness of the House of Lords.
Bishop of Hereford Speaks in Favor of the Budget, Which He Says Is Based on Sound Finance.

London, Nov. 26.—"If you win a victory it will be only a temporary one; if you lose you have prejudiced the position, power, prestige and usefulness of the house of lords, which I believe every one of you honors and desires to serve as heartily as I do myself."

In this homely, candid fashion, Lord Balfour of Burleigh told the members of the house of lords his opinion of the course they are pursuing with regard to the budget. He has none of the graces of oratory which Lord Rosebery possesses, but his plain, downright manner is not without effect and his speech was the real event of the day's sitting of the upper chamber. It probably will have even greater influence than that of Lord Rosebery, because Rosebery no longer holds the confidence of any party.

The bishop of Hereford, who intervened later in the debate, said that while he respected the archbishop of Canterbury's desire that the bishops abstain from voting on the measure, he claimed the right to the exercise of independent judgment. If the bishops had any function to perform it was to speak for the multitudinous poor, he said. Therefore he supported the budget, which was a social welfare budget, based on sound finance. He was convinced, he declared, that the country's answer to an appeal to the ballot would be in clear English that never again shall the fundamental liberties of the people be endangered by a privileged class. He wished that the budget might be passed as a protection against the rapidly growing spirit of revolt along the democracy, which might become dangerous.

Lord Curzon III.

Although it was the fourth day of the budget debate and the absence of Lord Curzon, who but for a sudden illness was to have continued the Unionist attack upon the Liberal measure, lessened popular interest, there was little falling off in the attendance when the house of lords met.

The extension of the time for debate will give opportunity for more of the lords to be heard and many maiden speeches will be made. Lord Revelstoke, who has been a member of the second chamber for twelve years, made his first speech in the house of lords this week.

Lord Ashbourne, who has been a member of several Unionist cabinets, took Lord Curzon's place in reopening the debate, so that while many were disappointed at the failure of the former viceroy of India to speak, the visitors heard an orator almost equally notable.

Lord Ashbourne contended that there was no authority on constitutional history that disputed the right of the lords to act according to their discretion in rejecting or accepting the budget. This year's budget, by preserving a variety of bills within its covers, sought for the first time in the history of budgets to go far beyond the scope of providing revenue to meet the annual expenditures, he said.

IOWA MAN ENDS HIS LIFE

Feared Two Breach of Promise Suits.

Vinton, Ia., Nov. 26.—Harassed with threats of breach of promise suits, and fearing he would be prosecuted by two young women whom, it is alleged, he had become engaged to Alva Jewell, living five miles north, committed suicide by shooting himself. His body was found in an outbuilding, and when discovered was still warm.

The young man left the house in the morning, saying he was going rabbit hunting. Because of his moroseness recently, when he did not return for dinner the family started a search for him.

It is said that Jewell had made love to and been accepted by two young women of Urbana, each of whom, when she found her lover betrothed to another, hired a lawyer and threatened to sue.

Trembling Hand Saves Life.

Bemidji, Minn., Nov. 26.—Temporarily deranged because of over indulgence in intoxicating liquors William Sorenson of Fertile made an attempt here at suicide by drinking carbolic acid. His hand trembled so violently that most of the contents of the bottle of acid was spilled on his face.

Slides Block Trains.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 26.—Very serious rock and snow slides occurred on the Canadian Pacific railway in the Rockies, blocking the lines and compelling the cancellation of all trains.
Three feet of snow has fallen in Roger's Pass and trains have had narrow escapes.

Gotch failed to gain a single fall from Zbyszko, the giant Pole, in an hour and thereby lost the match, the conwin two falls within the hour.

The Pole displayed tremendous physical strength and excellent knowledge of the game.

Zbyszko said: "I can beat this man in a straight match."

Jack Herman, his manager, said:
"I will post $2,500 in Chicago for a match with Gotch for $10,000 a side." Zbyszko weighed 236 pounds, Gotch 203. Ten thousand persons saw the match.
